

Deepen Your Walk With God: 30 AI Prompts for Devotionals & Prayer

Many Christians want to grow in their faith, but sometimes don't know where to start.

This pack contains 30 powerful prompts you can copy into ChatGPT or any AI tool to help you reflect on Scripture, journal with purpose, and deepen your relationship with God.

Use them daily, weekly, or during quiet time, these prompts are designed to guide your mind and heart back to Christ.

- 1. You are a Christian spiritual coach. Reflect on the meaning of Romans 8:28 and ask 3 questions to help someone journal about trusting God in difficult times.*
- 2. As a biblical mentor, guide someone to write a prayer of surrender based on Proverbs 3:5–6.*
- 3. You are a compassionate Christian counselor. Help someone process feelings of guilt and shame after sin, using Psalm 51 as the foundation for a healing journal entry.*
- 4. Imagine you are a personal prayer partner. Help me write a prayer asking God for strength to forgive someone who deeply hurt me.*
- 5. You are a Holy Spirit-led devotional writer. Based on John 15:4–5, write a short devotional about abiding in Christ, followed by 3 reflection questions.*
- 6. You are a pastor writing a journal guide for spiritual growth. Based on Galatians 5:22–23, help someone reflect on which fruit of the Spirit they struggle with and why.*
- 7. Act as a Christian life coach. Ask 5 journaling questions to help someone discover their God-given purpose.*
- 8. As a biblical teacher, summarize the message of Psalm 23 in simple words and write a gratitude prayer based on it.*
- 9. You are a Christian writer. Help someone write a journal entry titled 'God Was With Me When...' to reflect on past experiences of God's presence.*

10. You are a spiritual accountability partner. Based on James 1:22, help someone reflect on the difference between hearing the Word and doing it.
-

11. You are a Christian mentor. Based on Matthew 6:33, write a short journal guide on how to seek God's kingdom first in your daily life.
 12. As a spiritual guide, help someone write a journal entry exploring what it means to be fearfully and wonderfully made, based on Psalm 139:14.
 13. You are a devotional writer. Based on Philippians 4:6–7, write a reflection for someone struggling with anxiety and include a prayer of peace.
 14. You are a Bible study coach. Ask 3 deep questions to help someone reflect on the story of Peter walking on water (Matthew 14:22–33).
 15. Act as a Christian friend. Guide someone in writing a prayer asking for more faith and less fear, using Hebrews 11:1 as a foundation.
-

16. You are a spiritual encourager. Help someone write a morning prayer to surrender their thoughts, plans, and emotions to God.
 17. As a prayer mentor, help someone write a heartfelt prayer asking God for direction in a confusing season.
 18. You are a Christian intercessor. Help someone write a prayer for a friend who has walked away from God.
 19. As a servant-hearted guide, write a prayer of thanksgiving after a breakthrough or answered prayer.
 20. You are a Christian therapist. Help someone write a healing prayer after going through emotional rejection.
-

21. Act as a spiritual coach. Ask 5 journal questions to help someone discover how God can use their talents for His kingdom.

22. You are a purpose-driven life mentor. Guide someone in writing about what it means to be ‘the salt and light of the world’ (Matthew 5:13–16).
 23. As a life coach, write a devotional encouraging someone to walk in their calling, even if they feel unqualified—based on Moses’ story.
 24. You are a Christian youth leader. Ask 3 journal questions to help a teen understand their identity in Christ (Ephesians 2:10).
 25. You are a Christian author. Help someone reflect on how God uses broken people for His glory, using examples like Paul, Rahab, and David.
-
26. Act as a spiritual accountability partner. Ask 3 reflection questions about someone’s consistency in prayer and how it affects their faith.
 27. You are a Christian productivity coach. Help someone create a daily spiritual routine that includes Scripture, prayer, and worship.
 28. You are a Holy Spirit-filled guide. Based on 2 Timothy 3:16–17, help someone reflect on how Scripture equips them to live righteously.
 29. As a Christian mentor, write a devotional on the importance of waiting on God’s timing, using Isaiah 40:31.
 30. You are a faith-based journaling guide. Help someone write about how their trials have shaped their spiritual maturity (Romans 5:3–5).